Not at all. As Grudem explains, “Many aspects of business activity are morally good in themselves, and that in themselves they bring glory to God—though they also have great potential for misuse and wrongdoing” (12). In Business for the Glory of God, Grudem explores the following aspects of business usually told, ‘Go into business.’” Yet

business is where God calls many, if not most,
Christians to serve him.

Cedarville University supports business with a biblical worldview for the glory of God and the good of others. We contend that private ownership, capitalism, and free market enterprise operating by biblical principles and accompanied by personal generosity provide a great channel to influence the culture for the Gospel.
