District and Circle - Wikipedia

District and Circle presents a sequence of five sonnets. Apparently, these are based on Heaney's memories of early-days' vacation work in London. The poem reflects the anxiety after a terrorist attack in the London transport and, furthermore, it depicts the notions of the underworld and of underground tunnels and levels between life and death in a Dantesque/Virgilian way.

Analysis of District and Circle by Seamus Heaney

DISTRICT AND CIRCLE. The itinerary of Seamus Heaney's 2006 volume, District and Circle, begins 'in an age of bare hands and cast iron' and ends as 'The automatic lock / Clunks shut', in the new conditions of a menacing 21st century. Scenes from a childhood spent far from the horrors of World War II are coloured by a strongly contemporary sense that 'Anything can happen', and ...

District and Circle — The Estate of Seamus Heaney

"District and Circle" is a collection of 44 poems by the Nobel Laureate Seamus Heaney that was released in 2006. One feels the essence of the 20th century across this collection. There are a couple poems that refer to World War II, not from the perspective of crucial events and violent clashes, but as it was experienced in "the District" (e.g. "Anahorish 1944.")
