Supergirl season 4 has drawn off of a variety of sources, as is typical for the series set in the Arrowverse. The show's many subplots have drawn upon elements of the Superman stories Red Son and Superman vs. The Elite. Yet the last two episodes have directly drawn upon concepts introduced by DC Comics' marvel-ous competition.

Due to DC's frequent reboots, characters with long-standing relationships meet again for the first time on a fairly regular basis in new continuities. And in Action Comics #1024, that just happened to Supergirl, twice. The issue sees Supergirl team up with the rest of the Superman Family. In the process, she's introduced to two characters she's ...
